The 2010 Cheboygan County Fair is gearing up. This year, the fair will run from August 7 through August 14. We are inviting you to participate at this year's fair, along with other new vendors and exhibitors. The Cheboygan County Fair has been rated as an Award Winning Fair in the state of Michigan by the Detroit News. We are very excited to have the Skerbeck Bros. Show, Inc. back as our carnival. Any commercial exhibitors and vendors can set up Friday, August 6 by appointment with Emily or Dan at the fair office (231-627-9611). Exhibitors and vendors must provide their own backdrops and tables. Payment in full is expected before set up date.

Unacceptable merchandise not allowed to be sold at the fair include: knives, switch blades, brass knuckles, nun chucks, pictures and photographs of nude or partially nude people, or any other merchandise deemed harmful or distasteful to oneself or others. We will not allow any loud music or noise that interferes with other vendors inside or outside the building. These regulations will be enforced and closely monitored by the Cheboygan County Fair Board, security, and the police. Failure to adhere to this policy may result in your being asked to leave the fairgrounds, and automatically forfeit your space and rental fees.

Cheboygan County Fair Board and Management will use the utmost diligence to ensure the safety of livestock and articles entered for exhibition and display after their arrival on the grounds. Under no circumstances will the Cheboygan County Fair be responsible for loss or theft, or damage by fire, lightning, wind, or other acts to such livestock or articles on exhibition or display. The signer or representative of the commercial rental space contract shall hold Cheboygan County, Cheboygan County Commissioners, Cheboygan County Fair Board, and Management harmless and indemnified.

Enclosed are the 2010 rates and the rental space contract.

We know the exhibitors and vendors play an important role in our fair, and appreciate their contribution to the success of our fair.
